COMPREHENSION

(20 MARKS)

Q.I) Read the passage given below carefully and answer the following questions.

Mike and Morris lived in the same village. While Morris owned the largest jewellery store in the area, Mike struggled as a poor farmer. Mike, feeling the weight of providing for his large family, decided to leave for the city to seek better opportunities. That night, they camped under a large tree. He instructed his sons to clear the space beneath the tree, asked his wife to gather water, and directed his daughters-in-law to start a fire while he began cutting wood from the tree himself. It was not known to them that a thief was hiding in the branches of the tree. As Mike and his family worked together, he observed that they had no food to cook.

Mike's wife shared the same thought and questioned her husband, "Everything is prepared, but what are we going to eat?" Mike raised his hands to the sky and replied, "Don't worry. He is observing all of this from above. He will assist us." The thief became anxious upon realising that the family was large and worked well together. He decided to make a quick escape. However, he left the bundle of stolen jewels and money behind, which fell into Mike's lap. Mike opened it and leaped with joy upon seeing what was inside. The family returned to the village with all the belongings, sharing the success story excitedly.

Morris believed the tree was extraordinary, and he saw it as a quick means to make some money. He instructed his family to pack some clothing, and they left as if embarking on a trip. They also paused under the same tree, and Morris began directing everyone just as Mike had done. Being wealthy, no one in his family was willing to follow his commands as they were used to having servants around them at all times. Thus, the person who went to the river for water enjoyed a nice bath. The one who was supposed to gather wood for the fire ended up falling asleep. Morris's wife remarked, "Everything is prepared, but what are we going to eat?" Morris lifted his hands and replied, "Don't worry. He is observing all of this from above. He will assist us."

As soon as he finished saying that, the thief jumped down from the tree with a knife in hand. Seeing him, everyone started running around to save their lives. The thief stole everything they had, and Morris and his family had to return to the village empty-handed, having lost all their valuables that they had taken with them.
